SEC. 10-1.105 TITLE.

This title shall be known and may be cited and referred to as the “Hayward Zoning Ordinance.”

SEC. 10-1.110 PURPOSE.

The purpose of this Zoning Ordinance is to promote the public health, safety, general welfare and preserve and enhance the aesthetic quality of the City by providing regulations to ensure an appropriate mix of land uses in an orderly manner. In furtherance of this purpose the City desires to achieve a pattern and distribution of land uses which generally:

- a. Retain and enhance established residential neighborhoods, commercial and industrial districts, regional-serving uses, and recreational amenities.
- b. Allow for the infill and reuse areas at their prevailing scale and character.
- c. Accommodate expansion of development into vacant and under utilized lands within environmental and infrastructure constraints.
- d. Maintain and enhance significant environmental resources.
- e. Provide a diversity of areas characterized by differing land use activity, scale and intensity.

- f. Establish Hayward as a unique and distinctive place in the heart of the San Francisco Bay Area with a high quality of life in an attractive, secure environment for the City's residents and businesses.

SEC. 10-1.115 AUTHORITY AND GENERAL PLAN CONSISTENCY.

- a. This Zoning Ordinance is a tool for implementing the goals, objectives, and policies of the Hayward General Plan, pursuant to the mandated provisions of the State Planning and Zoning Law, the California Environmental Quality Act, and other applicable State and local requirements. All developments within the unincorporated area of the City's Sphere of Influence should be consistent with the Hayward General Policies Plan. All new development within the incorporated area of the City shall be consistent with the General Policies Plan.
- b. The provisions of this Zoning Ordinance are intended to supplement the City's Subdivision Ordinance (adopted as required by the Subdivision Map Act), and the latest edition of the California Uniform Building Code as adopted by the City Council shall prevail. When the provisions of this Zoning Ordinance conflict with any provision of the City's Subdivision Ordinance or the Uniform Building Code, the most restrictive or that imposing higher standards shall apply.
- c. The type and intensity of land use as shown on the General Plan Map and any applicable specific plan shall determine, together with this Zoning Ordinance and the City's Subdivision Ordinance, the type of streets, roads, highways, utilities and public services that shall be provided by the developer.

SEC. 10-1.120 REVIEWING AUTHORITIES.

- a. The City Council shall have final decision authority over appeals of the Planning Commission, Specific Plans, General Plan amendments, Zoning Ordinance amendments and zone changes. The Council may also impose conditions of approval.
- b. The Planning Commission shall prepare, recommend adoptions, implement and periodically review and recommend revisions to the General Plan and this Zoning Ordinance for the desired physical development of the City, and any land within its Sphere of Influence. Decisions by the Planning Commission shall be final for appeals and referrals of Site Plan Reviews, Administrative Use Permits, Conditional Use Permits and Variances unless appealed to the City Council. The Commission may also impose conditions of approval and make interpretations of the General Plan and Zoning Ordinance, which may be appealed to the City Council.
- c. The Director of Community and Economic Development, hereinafter referred to as "Planning Director," shall perform the duties and functions of day-to-day and long-range management of the Community and Economic Development Department. This includes the acceptance and processing of all land use permit applications (i.e., variances, development permits, etc.). All officers and employees who have the primary responsibility for the administration and interpretation of this Zoning Ordinance may act in his or her stead. The Planning Director has final approval authority for and enforcement of Administrative Use Permits, Site Plan Review, and Administrative Variances, all of which may be appealed to the Planning Commission. The Planning Director may impose conditions of approval or make interpretations of this Zoning Ordinance, which may be appealed to the Planning Commission.

SEC 10-1.130 ESTABLISHMENT OF ZONING DISTRICT MAPS.

The designations, locations, and boundaries of the aforesaid Districts are hereinafter set forth by reference to a Zoning District Index Map on file with the City Clerk and Community and Economic Development Department. Said maps and all notations, references, data, and other information shown thereon are hereby adopted and made a part hereof.

SEC. 10-1.135 EXCEPTIONS.

The following uses are exempted by this Zoning Ordinance and are permitted in any district: Poles, towers, wires, cables, conduits, vaults, laterals, pipes, mains, valves or any other similar distributing and transmitting equipment for telephone or television communications, electric power, gas, water and sewer lines provided that the installation shall conform when applicable with Federal Communications Commission, State Public Utilities Commission, and Federal Aviation Agency rules and regulations, or any other authorities having jurisdiction and subject to other provisions of this Ordinance, other City ordinances, rules and regulations. This exception does not include any such facilities needed for wireless telecommunications (refer to Article 13 of Chapter 10 of the Hayward Municipal Code, the Antenna and Telecommunications Facilities Ordinance).

SEC. 10-1.140 EXCLUSIONARY ZONING ORDINANCE.

When a use is not specifically listed in the sections devoted to “Uses Permitted,” it shall be assumed that such uses are prohibited unless it is determined by the Planning Director or on appeal to the Planning Commission that the use is similar to and not more objectionable or intensive than the uses listed. Further, uses are permitted and conditions to use are established within each district as set forth herein.

SEC. 10-1.145 ACCESSIBILITY FOR PERSONS WITH PHYSICAL DISABILITIES.

Regulations of Title 24 of the California Building Code as adopted by the Hayward City Council regarding accessibility for persons with physical disabilities shall be followed wherever they are applicable. The City of Hayward also supports and encourages compliance with federal government mandated accessibility regulations for persons with physical disabilities, the Americans with Disabilities Act, or ADA. Provisions within this Zoning Ordinance do not preclude providing reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities.

SEC. 10-1.150 NUISANCE.

No use or expansion of any existing use shall be conducted in a manner that is detrimental to or incompatible with adjacent properties so as to create any dangerous, noxious, or objectionable conditions that are a nuisance to owners or users of adjoining property or to the general public. The following hazards, pollutants, and disturbances are examples of conditions that constitute a nuisance, and include but are not limited to: fire, explosion, odor, gases, smoke, dust, liquid or solid refuse or wastes, noise, vibration, electrical interference, glare, heat, cold, and dampness. Also refer to Chapter 3, Article 11, the Graffiti Prevention and Abatement Ordinance and Chapter 5, Article 7, the Community Preservation and Improvement Ordinance of the Hayward Municipal Code.

SEC. 10-1.155 PREZONING OR INTERIM ZONING OF UNINCORPORATED LANDS.

Any unincorporated territory adjoining the City may be prezoned or have an interim zoning classification for the purpose of determining the classification that will apply to such property in the event of subsequent annexation to the City. The method of accomplishing such prezoning or interim zoning shall be as approved herein for the classifying or reclassifying of property within the City. The classification established by such prezoning or interim zoning action shall become effective at such time as the annexation becomes effective.

SEC. 10-1.160 RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER REGULATIONS.

- a. All licenses, permits, business tax forms, and certificates issued by the City must comply with the provisions of this Ordinance. Any such conflicting license, permit, or certificate is null and void. A business license as referred to in Section 8-1.00 of the Hayward Municipal Code is a revenue matter and shall not be considered as determinative of any required zoning compliance or planning approval.
- b. It is not intended for the provisions of this Ordinance to interfere with or annul any easement, covenant, restriction, or other agreement between parties, provided said arrangement is not in conflict with the provisions herein.

SEC. 10-1.165 SEVERABILITY.

If any chapter, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Zoning Ordinance is for any reason, held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Zoning Ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have adopted this Zoning Ordinance and each chapter, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more portions of this Zoning Ordinance might be declared invalid.

SEC. 10-1.170 UNCERTAINTY OF BOUNDARIES.

Where uncertainty exists as to the boundaries of any of the aforesaid Districts as shown on Zoning District Maps, the Planning Director, or on appeal to the Planning Commission upon written application or upon its own motion, shall determine the location of such boundaries.

SEC. 10-1.175 USES/ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED INDOORS.

Unless otherwise noted or explicitly implied herein, all land uses and activities shall be conducted wholly within enclosed buildings.

SEC. 10-1.180 VIOLATIONS OF ZONING ORDINANCE.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, property owner, business proprietor, or corporation to cause or permit any violation to the provisions of this Ordinance, or to fail to comply with any of its requirements, including plans and conditions in connection with approval of a planned development district, site plan review, conditional use permit, administrative use permit, variance, or other approved permit. The Planning Director and/or his or her designee shall have and are hereby vested with the authority to enforce the provisions of this Ordinance in the manner provided by California Penal Code Section 836.5 against any person who violates these provisions (also refer to Section 10-1.2850).
